New Life in the Light of God

“Have you ever died? Hi, I am Danielle. I have died. Emotionally and physically. Oh but the Lord is a mighty Savior. He heard my cries. He remembered every tear.” One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in His temple. Psalm 27:4" The Lord has directed my steps to Wings of God. He has redeemed me from a life of darkness. Jesus has given me a melody in my heart that no one can steal.” —Danielle, Pearl

The snippet below features a heartfelt excerpt from Danielle's application to Wings of God, where she expressed her desire to grow in faith and maintain sobriety — a journey in which she's now thriving six months later!

I am applying for wings of God because I know God is answering my prayers and he has set me on this path. He has directed my feet. I believe with all my heart this is where I am supposed to go. There is no court order saying I am supposed to go to sober living let alone a year long program. I want this and I know God will help me find my purpose through this program. I hate drugs. God has taken that desire from me and I will forever be grateful. I have always been with a man since I was 15 one long relationship to another. God is telling me its time for me to do this on my own. I am ready. Psalms 27 one thing have I desired of the Lord that will I seek after that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life to behold the beauty of the Lord and to enquire in his temple.♥

An Afternoon of Bowling: Laughter and Recovery at Wings of God

Fun Through Fellowship

The Pearls and staff of Wings of God traded their usual routines for an outing filled with strikes, spares, and plenty of laughter.

The Wings of God program, known for its steadfast commitment to helping women rebuild their lives, is no stranger to hard work and perseverance. The "Pearls" – those women who courageously walk this path of healing – invest their days in deep reflection, personal growth, and mutual support. Yet, this afternoon of bowling reminded everyone that recovery isn't just about the struggle; it's also about rediscovering joy.

Volunteer Spotlight

“Staying connected with previous Pearls is such a joy for me. I have been a volunteer with Wings of God since the beginning and have developed relationships with some of the Pearls. It's a highlight of my week when I connect with a previous Pearl through email, text, or social media, but my favorite is face-to-face for lunch. Whether it's hearing about their life or giving them a boost of encouragement, it is treasured time.” —Linda, Volunteer
